FREE TO YOU-MY SISTER Free to You and Every Sister Sufer foring from Woman's Alimente.

MRS. M. SUMMERS, Box II, - - - - Notre Dame, Ind., U. S. A.

Tolstoy's Children

closed his eyes alone with his own treather's teachings we make the greatness, his tragical fate, his soul and his God! Never has the Western their father's teachings we make the understand and respect it.

Tolstoy's Children. world been so overawed by Telstoy's

Leo Tolstoy, once the Czar's page, One generation is born to gather what officer in the bodyguard and man of the preceding one scatters; then comes the world, is now a saint. He was along a new generation to enjoy the raised into heaven-was carried away treasures and wealth which the former in a charlot of fire, almost like Elijah, collected. If there be in the souls of the prophet. What a drama was the Tolstoy's children an opposition against death of this extraordinary man, who their father's teachings we must try

Total control control fact, the sool, world been so everwood by Totalcy, and the south so patient to get in hear and read that of their control fact, and it is soon to the south of the south so the south of the south so the south of the south so the so It has often been said, Tolstoy only showed the path, he did not follow it That is why it is now so painful to himself. He wore the garb of the us to hear and read that Tolstoy's Russian peasant, but Mereshkowski.

Roanoke Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., March 11.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Second Presbyterian Church held an interesting meeting Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Joseph Kimberling. After a brief business session, delicious refreshments were served. were served.

business session, delicious refreshments were served.

The Daughters of the Confederacy met Wednesday afternoon in their club room, with about thirty members present. The chapter yoted to send $50 to the Home for Needy Confederats Women in Richmond, and $50 to the treasurer of the Virginia Division, Mrs E. D. Taylor, of Richmond, for the relief fund, which was originated at the Suffolk convention last October. Mrs Randolph, of Richmond, is chairman of the relief fund committee.

Miss Minnie Bowyer, of Fincastle, and Thomas Dunlap Hunter, of this city, were married in Bristol last Saturday, and returned to Roanoke Monday. Both the bride and the groom are members of prominent families and proposition of the popular in social circles here.

Misses Lila Terry, Lula Terry and Edith Jamison left Wednesday for New York, whence they will sail for Europe for a six-months' sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Howell have returned from their bridal trip. Mrs. Howell was Miss Ada Hunt, of Danville.

The Southwest Shakespeare Club

Howell was Miss Ada Hunt, of Danville.

The Southwest Shakespeare Club met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. B. Price, and after the usual hour of study the hostess and her two daughters "surprised" the guests with a St. Patrick's party. Refreshments carried out the idea, and each guest was presented with shamrocks tied with green ribbons as souvenirs.

Monday afternoon Mrs. I. A. Gibbs delightfully entertained the St. Agnes Guild of Christ Church,
Monday a charming dinner was given at the Shenandoah Club, in honor of Miss Gretchen Harding, of Canon City, Col. Covers were laid for six, and those present were Miss Harding, Mrs. Charles Early, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald R. Fairfax, Captain Marion S. Battle and Dr. S. S. Gale.

Mrs. Walter A. Carpenter is visiting relatives at Clifton Forge.

Miss Pearl Sublette, of Bluefield, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. I. Ernest Boone, of Church Avenue, S. W.

Mrs. F. R. Hawkins, of Petersburg, has returned home, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Walters.

Mrs. J. Tyler Meadows has returned from Charlottesylle, where she visited relatives.

Miss Mayola Gillespie, of Tazewell, who has been the guest of Miss Stella Stras, has returned home.

Mrs. H. D. Hodgson, of Toronto, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Nancy Randolph, of Winchester, is the guest of Mrs. Lawrence S. Davis.

J.B.Mosby & Eo.

A Display of Early Spring Millinery

Hundreds of new and charmingly pretty hats, trimmed in a va-Shapes large or small, appropriate for the smartly tailored suit or

There's an Individuality of Style About the New Ready-to-Wear Garments at Mosby's Such as Can Only Be Found in This Store What is worn by your neighbor may look extreme on you, so let becomingness be your guide. You'll find it at Mosby's because we are specialists. The styles are many this year, but here's the place to find them. May we impress upon you now at the beginning of the season that while the Mosby Store is a high class quality store, it is NOT a high price store. And nowhere in the store does this truth apply more than in our Suit Salons. New Silk Dresses of Bordered Foulards, $17.75 French Serge and Novelty Mixture Suits, The fabrics that the devotees of Dame Fashion abroad have gone wild over.

Stripes and checks of navy with white, black with white, cadet with white, reseda with white, and brown

The bodice is cut kimono style, with an allover lace yoke and sleeves; trimmed with a border. The skirts are plain, but also trimined with a border. Very handsome and very striking effects. Cheap, too, at

New Messaline Dresses, $24.75

Another Silk that has taken front rank this spring as a dress fabric.

Plain messaline, in navy and blue, trimmed with stripe effects, giving the dresses a decidedly smart appearance.

Eimono style waist with a yoke of allover lace; short sleeves with lace cuffs. The skirts are paneled back and front with a wide shaped band of striped messaline—$24.75.

New Silk Waists, $6.50

Imagine the dressiest looking Silk Waist you've ever seen at from $6.50 to $8 and it'il give you some idea of how these garments look.

Made of very fine, soft messaline in grey with black checks and navy with white checks. Kimono style-some with lace yokes finished with a sailor tie; others with pipings of black, green, Helen pink and tan.

New Silk Petticoats, $2.98 in Richmond at $4.00.

Made of heavy messaline, with a deep tailored flounce and an under-dust ruffle of percaline.

The colors are navy, black, emerald, tan and grey.

The proof of the assertion that the Petticoats are $4.00 values is in an examination of the garments.

There's more style, finish and good material crowded into these Suits at $23.50 than in any we've had for many a day. Fine French serges and novelty mixtures in navy,

The coats are 24 inches long; some plain tailored, others trimmed with fancy braid and Peau de Soie. The skirts are plain tailored or fancily trimmed to match the coats-$23.50.

Stylish Serge Suits, $27.75

And you'll heartily agree with us in saying they're stylish.

Navy and black serge with white stripes, and fancy mixed materials. Jaunty 24-inch coats, plain tailored and lined with Peau de Cygne; plain tailored skirts. High class tailoring is seen at its best in these suits at $27.75.

New Spring Coats, $12.75

You'll see them at their best at Mosby's -best as far as style and quality is concerned, but certainly reasonable in price.

Fine quality of navy and black serge, 52 inches long, plain tailored and trimmed with large pearl buttons.

Very smart style.

ROUGH SILKS for Light Weight Coat, Suits, Automobile Coats, Street and Evening Dresses, &c.

The woman who affects any of these silks will be smartly and uncommonly gowned. Our assortment is so large that its uses are practically limitless for all spring and summer occasions where an ultra-fashionable and generally useful silk is desired.

Your especial attention is called to our "Indro," "Salome" and "Arab" Silks-shantungs which have been treated by a new process, rendering them proof against spotting by water.

Indro Silks, $1.00 yard Salome Silks, $1.35 yard Arab Silks, $1.35 yard for silk dresses, lightweight coat suits, etc. All the new wanted shades are here, such A satin finished, waterproof silk, 27 inches colorings.

Arab Silk is a very rough weave, in a good brown, white, black, green, gray etc.

It's beautiful, serviceable and moderately priced.

There's just enough roughness of weave about Salome Silk to make it stylish, and it's heavy enough in weight to be the ideal silk for lightweight coat sults and three-piece dresses.

Arab Silk is a very rough weave, in a good weight and 27 inches wide. Copenhagen, navy, natural color, brown, white, grey, etc.

One of the best rough silks ever put on the market.

Another waterproof silk for coat suits and Toulah Silk is 27 inches wide, and can be worn for either reseda and champagne.

street or evening purposes. The shades are Copenhagen, light blue, red, mais, black,

We secured this lot at a special price—only a limited

Toulah Silks, 59c yard, Worth Regularly $1.00 yard | Natural Color Pongees, 89cto $1.75 yd Lightweight Pongees, 27 and 36 inches wide, for spring and summer dresses, 89c, $1.00 and $1.50 yard. Heavyweight Pongees, in rough and corded effects, 27 and 36 inches wide,$1.50 and $1.75 yard.

One decided advantage you'll find in these silks is thisthey'll wash nicely.

Gray Suitings Are the Most Popular Dress Goods for Spring, $1.50 & $1.75 yd Anything in grey has the call this season.

Your attention is called to what expert judges say is the finest collection south of New York and just as good value as anything in the metropolis.

Grey checks with dark stripes, grey with shadow plaids, solid greys, grey with mingled effects and many others.
Strictly all-wool fabrics in widths up to 54 inches. $1.50 and $1.75 yard.

in Lynchburg, where they attended the Turner-Baxendall marriage. Miss Mary Dolen left Sunday to spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Ford, of Charlottesville.

Miss Helen Jordan spent Friday and Saturday in Lyrchburg. Sammle Dolen returned on Sunday from Kentucky, ville Saturday and Sunday.

Master Seldon Somervillo left on Saturday for Alexandria. Charlie Carter and Master Roy Cun-ningham spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geter Carter, of Willie Dolen visited Lynchburg Sat from Kentucky.

Professor Walker visited Charlottes
Samuel J. McGuire, of Lynchburg, is visiting his daughter here.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Warrenton, Va., March 11.—Mrs.
Belle Owens left this week for Florida, where she will spend several weeks as the guest of her grandson. Charlie Jolley.

James E. Posse and A. Warrenton on Monday.

Mezike Low, master of hounds of the Kansas City, Mo., Hunt Club, and an old Fauquier boy, is on a visit to his father, Andrew Low, near Nokes-

Warrenton Social News

with her parents, has returned to war-renton.

Mrs. William C. Hayes spent several days in Washington this week.

Mrs. Mary S. Nelson, who has been visiting for several months in Tren-

MUNITY bindrance from werk. Boft as velvel-cary to the base of the bindrance from werk. Boft as velvel-cary to be apply-learpassies. Process of cure is natural to no further use for irreses. We prove what we can be apply-learpassies. Process of cure is natural to no further use for irreses. We prove what we make the process of the pro

The best of leathers only are used in "Battle Axe" Shoes.

Buy a Pair—Try a Pair.

ton and New York, will return to West

Jolley.

James F. Rose, a son of Mr. and Mrs.
Alex Rose, who holds a responsible position in Montana, was in Warrenton several days this week.

Miss Nina Haydon, who has been spending several weeks in Manassas with her parents, has returned to Warrenton.

His father, Andrew Low, near Nokes-ville.

Mrs. Wilbur Stone is at home after a visit to Mrs. Clark, in Baltimore, Md.

Miss Florence Boston, who is a student in the State Normal School in Farmville, is at home. Farmville, is at home for several weeks, on account of her health.

his father, Andrew Low, near Nokes-

Mr. and Mrs. Livingston Crosby, Miss Edith Crosby and Miss Helen Miller, of New York, are at the Warren Green Hotel for a visit. William H. Gaines, of Rosslyn, visit-ed Warrenton on Wednesday of this Miss Mollic Carter spent several days in Washington this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carner are in Charlottesville, visiting their daughter, Mrs. Samuel Arundale.

Dr. Charlie N. Fair, of West Virginia, is in Warrenton for ten days on a vacation.

a vacation.

Miss Phillips and Mrs. Wright, who have been visiting in Cambridge, Md., are at home again.

Mrs. John Randolph, of Washington, and her daughter, Mrs. Hinds, of Fairmont, W. Va., are spending some time at Mrs. Hugh Hamilton's.

Thomas Thomas of Washington mont, W. Va., are spending some time at Mrs. Hugh Hamilton's.

Thomas Thornton, of Washington, and Walter Cook, of Baltimore, were week-end visitors to Warrenton.

James Nash has returned to his home near Warrenton, after spending the winter in New York.

Mrs. Charles Marshall and Miss Marshall, of Germantown, Pa., who have been the guests of Mrs. Johnzie Tongue, left this week for Baltimore.

Mrs. Scott Nesbitt was in Warrenton several days this week. Mr. and Mrs. Nesbitt will arrive in Warrenton shortly to spend the summer at their home near here.

Mrs. C. W. Nelson has returned home after a visit to Baltimore and West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. William. Marriott, of Baltimore, are spending some time at Mrs. Edward Carter's.

Mrs. William White, of Washington, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hinks and Master Edwin are at home after a visit of ten days to friends and relatives in Baltimore, Md.

of Catarrh

and it Costs Nothing to Try.

miseries. There is no need of this suf-fering. You can get rid of it by a simple, safe, inexpensive, home treatment dis-covered by Dr. Blosser, who for over thirty-six years has been treating catarrh successfully. His treatment is unlike any other. It is not a spray, douche, salve, cream or inhaler, but is a more direct and thorough treatment than any of these. It cleans out the head, nose, throat and lungs so that you can again breathe freely and sleep without that stopped-up feeling that all catarrh sufferers have. It heals the diseased mucous membranes and arrests the foul discharge, so that you will be the controlled of the state of the stat as internal medicines do.

If you want to test this treatment without cost, send your address to Dr. J. W. Blosser, 774 Walton Street, Atlanta, Ga., and he will send you by return mail enough of the medicine to satisfy you that it is all he claims for it as a remedy for catarrh, catarrhal headaches, catarrhal deafness, asthma, bronchitis, colds and all catarrhal complications. He will also send you free an illustrated booklet. as internal medicines do.

How to Get Rid

A Simple Safe, Reliable Way,

Those who suffer from catarrh know its poison the system and ruin the stomach, not be constantly blowing your nose and spitting, and at the same time it does not also send you free an illustrated booklet. Write him immediatey.

VIRGINIA'S DELEGATION AT GREAT EDUCATIONAL MEETING

The Department of Superintendence of the National Education Asso cintion has recently closed a very successful meeting in Mobile, Ala. More than 2,000 prominent educators from all over the country were present. The above picture shows the Virginia delegation, taken in front of the mag-

Prom left to right (on side walk)—Hugh S. Bird, Fredericksburg; E. H. Russell, Fredericksburg; Harris Hart, Ronnoke; Dr. J. L. Jarman, Farmville; Charles G. Maphis, Casrio (tesville; W. A. Maddox, Farmville; Dr. Bruce R. Payne, University of Virginia; J. M. Binford, Richmond. From left to right (in foreground)—H. A. Hunt, Portsmouth; R. L. Bianton, editor Virginia Journal of Education; H. J. DeYarmett, Hampton Institute; Dr. J.

C. Chandler, Richmond; Jackson Da vis, Burkeville, and Dr. George P. Phe nix, Hampton Institute.